Course Description

This course will provide students with opportunities to review their basic elements of language competency and re-evaluate themselves on their weaknesses and strengths in English. It comprises of all four skills: reading, writing, speaking and listening. Reading emphasizes comprehension and vocabulary; paragraph writing focuses on generating, developing and organizing ideas, and prioritizes grammatical accuracy through contextual practice.

Rationale of the course

This course aims to prepare students for meeting the academic as well as the professional needs of communication through practicing grammar in context, learning different types of paragraphs and formal letters, developing academic vocabulary, and nurturing critical and analytical thinking skills. It will also provide students with the opportunities to enhance their speaking skills through classroom interactions. Overall, this course is crucial to develop various types of skills for communicating effectively using grammatically accurate and contextually appropriate expressions in both spoken and written forms.

Course Objectives

The objective of the course is to-

1. Provide students with exposure to different types of texts in English in order to make them informed and critical readers
2. Develop their skills in brainstorming and writing well-organized paragraphs, and to teach how to edit and revise their own as well as peer's writing
3. Enable them to prepare and deliver effective spoken responses
4. Teach grammar and vocabulary in a contextualized way
5. Guide how to write formal letters for a range of academic purposes

General rules for the course:

- Portfolio: Students will keep the record of their classwork and homework that will be checked by the faculty at the end of the semester.
- Quiz: There will be no makeup quizzes. Two quizzes in two terms will be taken and the score of all the quizzes will be averaged.
- Assignment: Paragraphs will be given as written assignments. Students should submit assignments on due dates. For each day late, 0.5 marks will be deducted.
- Late coming to class: Coming to class more than 15 minutes late will be marked as 'L'. Two Ls will be counted as one absence.
- Joining the class: Students must join the class within the first ten minutes of the beginning of the class. Attendance will be taken right after the first ten minutes.

- Attendance policy: Students have to maintain an attendance record of 80% throughout the semester. Students who have more than four unauthorized absences from classes will be asked to withdraw from the course.
- Zero tolerance: The university will show 'zero tolerance' to a student adopting any unfair means (copying in the exam, plagiarism in preparing assignments, etc.).
- Make-up Procedures: Students will not be allowed to sit for any make up exam except for emergency/medical grounds. Applications in this connection must be supported by medical certificates and diagnosis reports to sit for make-up midterm exams.
- Incomplete grade: Students can apply for an 'I' (Incomplete) grade only when they are barred from appearing at the Final exam on genuine medical grounds. Approval in this connection depends on the discretion of the Department Chair.
