

Sample Descriptive Paragraph

My Favourite Tourist Spot

(outline)

Topic sentence: St. Martin's island is my favourite tourist spot because it has mesmerizing natural beauty, offers various food items and has Bangladesh's only coral reef system.

Supporting sentence 1: Firstly, St. Martin's island is full of scenic beauty.

Supporting sentence 2: Also/Secondly, St. Martin's island is popular for introducing tourists to different delicacies/food items.

Supporting sentence 3: Finally, the presence of coral reefs renders this place more special.

Conclusion

(main paragraph)

St. Martin's island is my favourite tourist spot because it has mesmerizing natural beauty, offers various food items and has Bangladesh's only coral reef system. Firstly, St. Martin's island is full of scenic beauty. The diversity of creatures/biodiversity such as the oceanic creatures, seagulls, numerous birds and animals create a heavenly atmosphere in this small island. Moreover, the amazing sunset and the glowing sea at night add more beauty. Also/Secondly, St. Martin's island is popular for introducing tourists to different delicacies/food items. The fried flying fish, crab etc. are some of the special food items of the island. Finally, the presence of coral reefs renders this place more special. These coral reefs are home to marine life such as sea turtles, fish etc. To conclude/To sum up/In a nutshell, St. Martin's island is a dear place to me due to its natural beauty and diversity.

Instructions:

1. Follow the structures of the outline and the main paragraph
2. Do not introduce any new idea in the conclusion, it has to be the paraphrase/summary of the topic sentence
3. In both the outline and the main paragraph, the topic sentence and each supporting sentence MUST be in one line
3. Maintain word limit : 120-130 (around half page)
4. Use transitional devices
5. Be careful of spelling and grammatical mistakes (tense, subject-verb agreement etc.)