What is Argumentative Essay?

The argumentative composition is a genre of writing that requires the student to investigate a topic, collect, generate, and evaluate evidence and establish a position on the topic in a concise manner.

Structure

1. Thesis Statement

In case of both disagreement & agreement: Include 2 ideas in support of your point. Use I disagree or I agree accordingly. In the case of disagreement use the phrase in my opinion to consolidate your point of view

2. Supporting Detail 1: on the first idea and relevant points (2 points)
3. Supporting Detail 2: on the second idea and relevant points (2 points)
4. Supporting Detail 3: on counter-argument. Although following the counter-argument, you have to consolidate your POV once again using the phrase I strongly/ firmly believe that. Use the words Despite/ In spite of/ Though/ Although to connect two contrasting points of view. Writing this counter-argument is a MUST in terms of both disagreement and agreement
5. Conclusion
6. Word limit: 350-400

Important Transitional Devices

Although some think/believe, Even though, Despite, In my opinion
